

RAINY RIVER FIRST NATIONS
is seeking two (2) personable and outgoing individuals to join our team as CULTURAL HERITAGE INTERPRETERS
(Seasonal)

The purpose of this position is to provide guided group tours and develop digital social media content. This position will start prior to re-opening the centre and will focus on online content development and engagement which may include creating educational infographics, videos, virtual tours, live workshops/demonstrations or other activities. Tours will commence once the Centre is able to re-open.

This is a full-time seasonal position running from July to September, 2020 with the possibility of turning into part-time in the fall.

This position will report to the Curator and Head Cultural Interpreter at Kay-Nah-Chi-Wah-Nung Historical Centre.

The successful candidate will be responsible for:

- Greeting and escorting groups throughout the interpretive centre and exhibits; providing information about the history and culture as well as guiding outdoor tours of the trails sharing points of interests.
- Ensure all safety protocols are followed such as physical distancing, sterilizing all equipment between tours, and wearing a mask when interacting with guests.

Education and Experience:

- Minimum Grade 12;
- Minimum of 1 years' experience in dealing with the public;
- Familiar with photography, video recording, audio equipment and various software programs would be an asset
- CPR/First-Aid certification is an asset.

Necessary Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Ability to develop and maintain effective relationships with staff and the public;
- Excellent verbal communication skills;
- Knowledge of Indigenous culture & Rainy River First Nations desired.

What you need to know:

- Must be comfortable working outdoors;
- Must be comfortable with physical activity (some heavy lifting may be required);
- Must be comfortable working with individuals of varying age groups;
- Must be able to provide current Criminal Reference Check satisfactory to the First Nation;
- Must adhere to the Rainy River First Nations' Drug Testing Policy;
- Must have the ability to work flexible work hours, which may include evenings and weekends;
- Must have valid driver's license and access to a vehicle or ability to find alternate means of transportation.

340 Ross Road, Box 100
Stratton, ON, P0W 1N0 Canada

P. 1.807.483.1163 | F. 1.807.483.1263
E. mounds.rrfn@bellnet.ca

Please apply through e-mail or in writing by 4:00 PM on Friday, July 17, 2020. Application must include a cover letter, current resume, three (3) employment references (from a current or recent supervisor is preferable) with permission to contact these references.

Please submit application to: Rainy River First Nations
 P.O. Box 450
 Emo, On P0W 1E0
 Email: jobs@rrfns.com

If you require further information, please contact Kayleigh Speirs at 807.483.1163.

We thank all applicants. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

The Rainy River First Nations is an equal opportunity employer. Accommodation is available for applicants with disabilities in the recruitment process upon request.

This position is partially funded by Young Canada Works in Heritage Organizations.